Yes, EPA is hiring, a lot actually. Funny you should ask but I have been on a trip to then Gold King mine doing an investigation on the spill. Pretty cool stuff.

Hi, John,

Nonresponsive

On another subject, do you know if Reg. 9 is hiring? I'm interested in getting back into the federal government, especially, EPA. A friend of mine at HQ said that hiring is starting up again.

Lastly, didn't you used to work on mine drainage? Did you get involved with the Gold King Mine spill?

Talk to you soon and say "hi" to your family!
